Theism and the Christian Faith

By Charles Carroll Everett, D.D., LL.D., Late Professor of Theology and Dean of the Faculty of Divinity in Harvard University

EDITED FROM MANUSCRIPT NOTES OF STUDENTS BY EDWARD HALE, A.B., S.T.B.

This volume of 491 pages consists of the lectures on theology given by Dr. Everett to the students of the Harvard Divinity School. These lectures were during many years an important contribution to theological education. They were never committed to writing, but were enriched from year to year by the profound scholarship and the brilliant intellectual quality of the author. They have been reproduced here by careful comparison of students' note-books covering the entire period of their delivery.

The volume forms a natural sequence to Dr. Everett's "Psychological Elements of Religious Faith." Published in 1902.
